With frosty hands I strive to wind The scattered things around my frame-And some broad oak to get behind,

To wake my love-fire's dying flame. In my bright greenwood I behold

The once-loved trees all stripped and bare,
And shivering, I endure the cold, Leafless, like them, in my despair,

The hills which once I loved to climb In buoyant toil, with Hope in view. Have lost the spirit's summer time, And wear a drear, unwelcome hue.

My soul's wide fields of ripening grain, That promised golden harvests all. Are blighted with untimely rain, And scorching droughts, and sere-brown fall.

The silver stream that flowed along In Joy's bright day, a flashing tide, is trozen; and the boatman's song Is hushed-my oar is laid aside.

The tree where once I gathered fruit Creak with the pain of frosted limbs. And sitting at the sapless root, The driving snow my sight bedims.

How fall Life's storms upon my way! How pass Life's years from birth till death! The Spring is Autumn in My day, And Summer brings me Winter's breath.

It is December! and erewhile My sorrowing years shall all be past! My dying Hope, on Sorrow's isle, Asks, "Shall December always last?"

The winds sweep by, nor heed my woe -The frost makes crystals of my tears— While all around the drifting snow In trackless plains my grave appears.

Yet comes there, 'mid the old year's toll, In one faint gleam of Hope's pure ray, The answer, 'No! Endure, O Soul! December shall be turned to May!"

A thigh bone has been exhibited to the Edinburg Medico-Chirurgical Society on which had been practiced Dieppenbach's operation for the cure of ununited fracture-drilling the ends of the bone and the insertion of an ivory peg. If things are to go on in this way, there will soon be a good deal of reason in the only remove the disorder itself, but complaints of the "artificial construction of modern society." Porcelain teeth, gutta percha noses, glass eyes, silver arteries, second-hand hair, and now, ivory pegged bones! Some of us "are wonder-fully made," as Jonathan said when he was struck with the sight of a baboon's skeleton! skeleton!

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL A PHENOMENON IN MEDICINE. HEALTH RESTORED AND LIFE

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR OR CORDIAL—At first the properties attributed to Prof. MOLSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIB OR CORDIAL were deemed fabulous. The public often deceived, could not believe the simple and sublime truths announced by the discoverer .-But facts, undeniable facts attested by witnesses of the highest class and character, are now triumphing over all doubts. It restores to full vigor every delicate func-tion connected with that mysterious compound tien connected with that mysterious compound agency of matter and mind, necessary to the re-preduction of human life. To persons of feeble muscular frame, or deficient in vital power, it is recommended as the only means of communicating that energy which is necessary to the proper enjoyment of all the natural appetites, as well as the higher mental attributes. Its beneficial effects are not confined to either sex or to any age. The feeble girl, the ailing wife, the listless, ernevated youth, the overworn man of business, the victim of nervous depression, the individual suffering from general deression, the individual suffering from general debility, or from the weakness of a single organ, will all find immediate and permanent relief from the all find immediate and permanent relief from the use of this incomparable renovator. To those who have a predisposition to paralysis it will prove a complete and unfailing safeguard against that terrible makedy. There are many, perhaps, who have so trifled with their constitutions, that they think themselves beyond the reach of medicine. Let not even these despair. The Elixir deals with disease as it exists, without reference to causes, and will not

The derangements of the system, leading to ner yous diseases, and the forms of nervous disease itself, are so numerous that it would require a column to enumerate the maladies for which this preparaity of the liver, mental depression, weakness of the will, indisposition to move, faintness after exercise, iage, emaciation, and all complaints growing out of a free indulgence of the passions, and all barrenness that does not proceed from organic causes beyond the reach of medicine.

Whenever the organs to be acted upon are free from malformation or strictural diseases it is averred MORSE'S INVIGORATING BLIXER will replace weakness with strength, incapacity with efficiency, irregularity with uniform and natural activity, and this not only without hazard of reaction, but with a happy effect on the general organization.

Bear in mind that all maiadies, wherever they begin, finish with the nervous system, and that the paralisation of the nerves or motion and sensation is physical death. Bear in mind also, that for every kind of nervous disease the Elixer Cordial is the only reliable preparation known. CAUTION.

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has been counerfeited by some unprincipled persons. Through a friend I procured a half dozen bottles of your Beech Drep, after using it, so perfect was the cure, that hundreds visited me.
